EASTERN WORLD

S.E.ASIA · FAR EAST · PACIFIC

INDEX TO VOL. IV (1950)

This index is restricted to articles and editorials only, and does not include items mentioned in the various features like "Books on the Far East," "London Notebook," "From All Quarters" and "Economic Notes."

AFGHANISTAN

The Outlook for Afghanistan, by Sir Giles Squire (February, p.8).

Afghanistan's Economic Development Plans, by Peter G. Franck (July, p.39).

AUSTRALIA

Indo-Australian Trade, by S. D. Shubart (May, p.38).

West New Guinea and Australia, by Charles Gamba (July, p.15).

Quandary in Canberra, by Neil Stewart (August-September, p.17).

Australian Myths About Asia, by Neil Stewart (December, p.19).

BURMA

Editorial (March, October).

The Ruby Fields of Burma, by W. L. Speight (February, p.10).

The Struggle in Burma, by Austin de Silva (April, p.9).

Burmese Water Festival (June, p.30).

Burma's "Peace Within One Year" Plan, by On Pe (October, p.14).

CEYLON

Editorial (January).

Results of the Bribery Probe, by Austin de Silva (February, p.9).

These People Make Ceylon, by Kumar Devarajah (July, p.18).

Hydro-Electric Power Development in Ceylon, by Austin de Silva (July, p.38).

Food for Ceylon, by Kumar Devarajah (October, p.38).

Kandyan Dancing, by E. R. Sarathchandra (November, p.27).

Ceylon Sketches (December, p.12).

CHINA (including HONG KONG)

Editorials (January, February, April, October).

Guiding Lines of the New China, by Mervyn Jones (January, p.12).

Discrepancies in the Distribution of Wealth in Ancient China, by Wen Ch'ing-hsi (January, p.15).

Railway Development in New China, by John Erickson (February, p.14).

The Story of Hong Kong's Trade, by R. M. McKinnon (February, p.30).

Hong Kong Exhibition, by Elizabeth Copleston (February, p.32).

Can Communism Convert China? by O. M. Green (March, p.7).

Observation on the Communist Movement in China, by Lewis Gen (April, p.14).

"Our Fated Toil," by David Rees-Williams (May, p.6).

Shanghai Faces Ruin, by O. M. Green (May, p.16).

Railway Construction in China, by K. Cantlie (May, p.35; June, p.37).

China's North-Western Province, by E. R. Yarham (July, p.21).

Chinese Pottery, by David Parry (July, p.30).

The Basis of Modern Chinese Education, by Harry A. Flower (August-September, p.24).

Second Thoughts on the British Recognition of China, by Tony Gibson (August-September, p.20).

Transition Stage in China, by Lewis Gen (October, p.15).

Education at the Grass Roots, by Tony Gibson (October, p.17).

The Taiping Rebellion, by Sir John Pratt (October, p.26).

On a Highway of Old Cathay, by N. Poulson (October, p.27).

Hong Kong's Foreign Trade, by P. Hibbert (October, p.39)

China's Population Problems, by S. Chandrasekhar (November, p.17; December, p.29)

Hong Kong's Textile Trade, by P. Hibbert (December, p.44)

INDONESIA

Editorials (February, April).

The New Indonesia (January, p.4).

Cultural Aspects of Indonesia, by Hurristiah Subandrio (January, p.33).

My Friend Cordiaz Darla, by Asrul Sani (January, p.34).

Indonesia's Trade Potential with the West, by P. H. Westerman (January, p.37).

Indonesia: "Revolt" or Sabotage? by Barbara Whittingham-Jones (June, p.9).

Indonesian Language in the Making, by George I. Begley (June, p.16).

Unchanging Bali, by Marc T. Greene (October, p.34).

Javanese Dancing, by Winifred Holmes (December, p.21).

INDIA

Editorials (April, August-September).

The Englishwoman in India, by H. G. Rawlinson (January, p.10).

Indian Yogis, by Edwin G. Voller (January, p.17).

Indian Philosophy Simplified, by U. V. Seetaramaiya (January, p.27).

Rubber Industry in India (January, p.41).

India's First President, by Alfred J. Edwin (February, p.4).

India's International Position, by M. Ruthnaswamy (February, p.5).

The Indian Viceroys, by H. G. Rawlinson (February, p.24).

Suppression of Civil Liberties in India, by K. P. Ghosh (March, p.9).

The Indian Film, by Kumar Devarajah (March, p.25).

Banking in the Indian Sub-Continent, by L. Delgado (March, p.27; April, p.36).

The Gandhi Institutions, by Pyarelal Nayyar (April, p.4).

Glimpses of Kashmir, by Mir Bashir (April, p.7).

Documentary Films in India, by Winifred Holmes (April, p.30).

New Labour Legislation in India, by Mervyn Jones (May, p.10).

Freedom of the Press in India, by "Indian Lawyer" (May, p.11).

The Indian Textile Exhibition in London, by Winifred Holmes (May, p.39).

The Nanjangadi Pits of Malabar, by N. V. Eswar (June, p.29).

Indo-British Trade, by Alfred J. Edwin (July, p.35).

A Town is Born, by A. S. Raman (August-September, p.22).

The Punjab Tragedy, by Y. Krishan (October, p.7; November, p.6).

Temple Bells and Why They Ring, by D. MacD. Fife (August-September, p.37).

Judicial Independence in India, by "Indian Lawyer" (October, p.6).

Delhi Painters, by A. S. Raman (October, p.28).

Travels in Sikkim, by David Parry (October, p.31).

Rural and Cottage Industries of India, by Louis Revel (November, p.15).

Indian Aboriginal Culture, by Winifred Holmes (November, p.30).

Progress on Indian Railways, by Alfred J. Edwin (November, p.37).

The Rise of Hindu Nationalism, by Panchanan Misra (December, p.16).

India and the U.N., by J. Chinna Durai (December, p.18).

Indian Scientists, by Alfred J. Edwin (December, p.36).

The Silk Industry in India, by Howard Fox (December, p.38).

JAPAN

Editorials (March, October).

The "Etas" of Japan, by Joseph Kalmer (February, p.13).

Japanese Capital Goods and Asia's Economy, by V. Wolpert (June, p.36).

Japan Today and Tomorrow, by Marc T. Greene (July, p.19).

Japan's Inland Sea, by E. R. Yarham (August-September, p.36).

Recovery of Japan's Cotton Mills, by John Murdoch (August-September, p.56).

Japan's Shipbuilding Industry, by A. James (October, p.40).

Shinto Marriages, by Iris Machin (October, p.30).

Japan: One Step Forward, Two Steps Back? (December, p.6).

Oil in Japan (August-September, p.59).

KOREA

Editorials (July).

Korean Folk Lore, by Dorothy Lewis (January, p.31).

The Textile Industry in Korea, by Yong Wan Kin (February, p.40).

Korea and Japan, by Robert T. Oliver (April, p.17).

The Theatre in Korea, by Larry Dabrow (August-September, p.41).

Imperial Seoul, by Neville Whymant (August-September, p.42)

The Battle of Ching-Shan-li, by Lee Bum Suk (August-September, p.44; October, p.32).

Korean Economics, by Howard Fox (August-September, p.47).

Korea: Incident or Global War? by Maj-Gen. J. R. Hartwell (August-September, p.6).

The Korean War and Indo-China, by Maj.-Gen. J. R. Hartwell (November, p.11).

Prospects for a United Korea, by Wilbert B. Dubin (December, p.8).

MALAYA

Editorials (May, June, December).

Unity in Malaya, by Sopiee bin Shaik Ibrahim (January, p.8).

The Singapore Conspiracy, by B. Whittingham-Jones (February, p.25).

Chinese Secret and Political Societies in Malaya, by W. L. Blythe (March, p.14; April, p.10).

Thoughts on Malaya, by Ralph Friedman (June, p.11).

Problems of Nationhood in Malaya, by R. Onraet (July, p.8).

PACIFIC

South Pacific Leaders Meet in Fiji, by R. M. McKinnon (May, p.4).

The Fiji Islands, by R. J. A. W. Lever (November, p.15).

The South Pacific Commission, by Eric Ford (December, p.5).

Indians in Fiji, by J. A. Kirpal (April, p.18).

PAKISTAN

Editorials (April).

Pakistan, Communism and Islam, by P. R. J. Evans (January, p.9).

Pakistan's Rupee, by Hugh Latimer (January, p.38).

Pakistan's Multi-Purpose Projects, by Mochin Ali (February, p.34).

Literary Background of Pakistan, by Atiquzzaman Khan (March, p.24).

Pakistan Trade Unions, by Harold A. Sims (March, p.29).

Pakistan's Rubber Manufacturing Industry, by Howard Fox (April, p.33).

Minorities in Pakistan, by Atiquzzaman Khan (May, p.13).

Chittagong Through the Ages, by D. MacD. Fife (July, p.16).

Pakistan's Land Problems, by M. H. Khan (October, p.8).

Oil in Pakistan, by Howard Fox (October, p.36).

The Burghley Mission Report, by Sir William Barton (November, p.35).

TIBET

Editorial (January).

The Peaceful Conquest of Tibet, by Norman Colgan (February, p.7).

Tibet's Secret Doctrine, by Norman Colgan (June, p.17).

The Rolang of Ga, by Paul Roche (November, p. 31).

Living Gods and a Red Army, by Douglas Hunt (December, p.10).

The Art of Tibet, by Norman Colgan (December, p.32).

NEPAL

Editorials (January, December).

Nepal, by R. G. Leonard (July, p.7).

Ramifications of Nepalese Goverment, by R. G. Leonard (December, p.14).

PHILIPPINES

The Philippines' Peasant Army, by Ralph Friedman (March, p.4).

The Problems of the Philippines, by Marc T. Greene (August-September, p.38).

VIET-NAM

Editorials (March, November).

French Parliament in Viet-Nam, by Dang Chan Lieu (January, p.6).

The Indian Heritage in S.E. Asia, by R. A. Butler, M.P. (May, p.14).

The Korean War and Indo-China, by Maj-Gen. J. R. Hartwell (November, p.11).

MISCELLANEOUS

Editorials (May, June).

Radio Voices of the East, by Charles A. Rigby (January, p.16).

Makar Sakranthi, by H. Nagasubrahmanyam (January, p.28).

Cutting Paper with a Purpose, by Joseph Kalmer (January, p.29).

Nocturne, by Katherine Westlake (January, p.30).

A Shamanistic Cure, by Hans Findeisen (January, p.32).

Bard of Bengal, by Anwar Hussain (January, p.36).

Britain's Bicycle Exports to S.E. Asia, by V. Wolpert (January, p.40).

Mauritius—Empire's Isle of Sugar, by E. R. Yarham February, p.12).

1473573

Oar and Sail in S.E. Asia, by David Parry (February, p.27).

The Forthcoming B.I.F., by V. Wolpert (February, p.35).

Asiatic Timber Resources, by Eric Hardy (February, p.38).

The Tamil Language, by D. A. Thrower (March, p.11).

The S.E. Asian Mainland in 1950, by Maj.-Gen. J. R. Hartwell (March, p.12).

Copra Production in the Far East, by Howard Fox (March, p.30).

Sermons in Stone, by Priyadarsi Sugatananda (April, p.28).

Oriental Fishing Methods, by David Gunston (April, p.32).

Pinto Rehabilitated, by Barbara Whittingham-Jones (May, p.29).

The Tax Collector, by Chao Shu-li (May, p.30).

A New Deal for Asia, by David Rees-Williams (June, p.7).

Braille for the East, by S. J. Chatterji (June, p.13).

Hopes of Spring, by Neville Whymant (June, p.28).

Manchester and the Far East (June, p.31).

Manchester's Post-War Relations with the Far East (June, p.13).

British Rayon, by Roger Wimbush (June, p.34).

"The Hub of the Wheel", by David Rees-Williams (July, p.10).

Britain's Air Routes to the East, by Sir Miles Thomas (July, p.11).

Equality in Islam, by Imam M. A. Bajwa (July, p.29).

New Insecticides for Tropical Plants (July, p.33).

Indo-British Trade, by Alfred J. Edwin (July, p.35).

Westminster and the East, by Harold Davies, M.P. (August-September; October; November; December; pp.5).

British Iron and Steel Industry and the East, by A. James (August-September, p.57).

North-East England and the Far East (August-September, p.59).

Western Dilemma, by Ralph Friedman (August-September, p.18).

The Middle East and the Great Powers, by E. Samuel (August-September, p.12).

The Development of Tropical Medicine, by Sir Alfred Chatterton (November, p.33).

Scotland's Share in Eastern Development (November, p.38).

Asia's Inland Transport, by A. James (August-September, p.40).

Ferment in the East, by Marc T. Greene (November, p.8).

The Administrator in Asia, by E. Samuel (November, p.10).

The King to Come, by Pham-Van-Ky (August-September, p.39).

British Shipbuilding and the East (August-September, p.49).

Clyde Yards' Share in World Shipbuilding, by John Sherret (August-September, p.52).

British Textile Industry and the Far East (December, p.40).

The Korean War and Tonnage Values, by A. James (December, p.42).

The Pathan, by Herbert Chambers (December, p.34).

The Problems of S.E. Asia, by Jyotiswarup Saxena (August-September, p.13).